DIGITAL DOGS OPENS NEW HEADQUARTERS

Scottsdale office is a result of tremendous growth in 2002

SCOTTSDALE, AZ. November 12, 2002 - Digital Dogs, a Scottsdale-based Internet Services company, today announced the successful opening of their new offices. Partnerships have spurred rapid growth this year enabling Digital Dogs to secure the new headquarters at 10245 E. Via Linda in Scottsdale.

Through key strategic partnerships, two enterprise clients with customers nationwide have contracted with Digital Dogs recently fueling their ability to expand. Digital Dogs works with clients large and small specifically understanding the unique needs of small businesses and caters these services to meet business goals. With the new offices, Digital Dogs is positioned to drive additional growth through additional partnerships with marketing firms as their web development arm for clients.

"2002 has been an exciting year for us. Our partnerships have delivered incredible growth and opportunity," said Mike Blum, President of Digital Dogs. "The new headquarters will enable our team to deliver on the quality and focus we aim to provide to our clients and partners now and in the future."
